Management System Rewards Risky Behaviors

Many worker behaviors and decisions, some resulting in unsafe behaviors or injuries or fatalities, are based upon the management system in which they work, the management system which is dictated by management, the employer, through the Supervisors and Managers. Many of the rewards for unsafe behaviors are rooted in the "informal" management system and have become part of the company culture...Read More...

Emergency Planning

Considering the two recent incidences in Illinois at an Amazon facility and in Kentucky at a candle factory with the tornado that tore through both of them, it's a good time to review your emergency action plan and your preparedness for an emergency.

The first thing to do is determine if you have...
